

Timothy Allen Mallory

Timothy Allen Mallory, aka "The Hulk," aka "Pops," 63, of St. Albans, took his final trip out to the woodshop on April 4, 2019.

Born December 3, 1955, to the late Edward and Beatrice Mallory of St. Albans, he was preceded in death by his brothers, Garyl Miller, EJ Mallory, and Carl Mallory

Tim is survived by his two sons Nathan (Danielle) and Kris (Jamie), his favorite granddaughter Jolene and his companion Amy Aston, aka "Mimi", all of St. Albans; his elder brothers, James Mallory of Cape Coral, Fla., Thomas Mallory of Elkview, and Dempsey Miller of Charleston. We can't forget his puppy sons, Ike and Gus.

Let's not forget his family from another mother, Roy Lee Mallory III, Brent Mallory and Jeannie Gillespie; and a whole host of nieces, nephews and friends. Tim was also the President and founding member of the BWCC, Backwaters Country Club.

Tim was a gentle giant who was both compassionate and loving. He was a true artisan whose medium was wood.

A celebration of Tim's legacy will be held Monday April 8. Visitation starting at 4:30 p.m. and service at 6:30 p.m., at Casdorph & Curry Funeral Home, St. Albans.

In lieu of flowers, we are asking for donations your local animal shelter.
